

Miami Valley Cycling Summit Workshop Results

August 14, 2009

Oakwood

1.

- Road race/ criterion involving all sectors of community, businesses
- Traffic signals should be bike activated (move to question 3)
- Laid back bike tour
- Engage city council in regular bike ride, city staff
- “That day in May”, Ice Cream social and other events should have info, tables, and ride components
- Heighten walk to school day with more partnerships
- Walking school bus/ biking S.B.
- Lobby for implementing bike lanes
- Focus on kids – parks, athletic/rec centers – how do kids
- Get aging population on bikes “Safe routes for Seniors”
- A Big Party
- Task Force (Bike/Ped advisory committee) to identify problem areas, make plan specific, address parking conflicts
- Get high school student council involved, on Ped/Bike committee
- Involve business district in getting people to ride to their stores, racks and incentives – cycling water bottles, discounts
- Continue removing parking and installing racks
- International PARKing Day – Bike mechanics fix bikes during (convert parking space to park)

2.

- City council - bike stores
- Schools – principal Waller 2 others, parents, teachers students
- Churches and church youth groups
- Local/ National businesses
- Biking CEO’s – Huff family
- Senior citizens
- Wright family (Steve) – Hawthorne Hill
- Tony Rainsburger – chemistry teacher, outdoorsman
- City manager – Norbert Kloptsch
- MVRPC, MCD, MetroParks

- City of Dayton - SE Corridor, City of Kettering
- Local media – Oakwood Register, KO times, DDN
- Cycling clubs, racing community
- Police

3.

- Analysis of current situation
- Bike parking
- Bike education for adults, driver’s ed
- “Same Road, Same Rights, Same Rules” campaign, mailings
- Better police enforcement: motorists and bicyclists
- Bike/Ped advisory committee formation
- Solicit participation from others – 25 more people
- Bike blog/ public input website
- Funding sources

Tasks	Who is responsible?	Deadline
Convene first meeting of Bike/Ped advisory and identify key people and issues	Councilman Byington	Mid September 2009
Task committee with planning key event at first meeting	Jane Weakley and committee	“That Day in May” 2010 (Sunday after) or Bike to Work Day
Get participation from cyclists in athletic master plan	Steve Byington and group	End of August 2009
Recruit volunteers for walk/bike to school week	Carol Enns Kay Minardi	October 2009